TO THE HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY

THE UNION SCHOOL

*Here's to the Upper High School
And to the many days;
Spent in the old school building,
Pride of our High School days—*

*We boast of our traditions;
We'll uphold them or die;
Long live our alma mater,
Here's to the Upper High.*

Rah! Rah! Rah!

THANK YOU

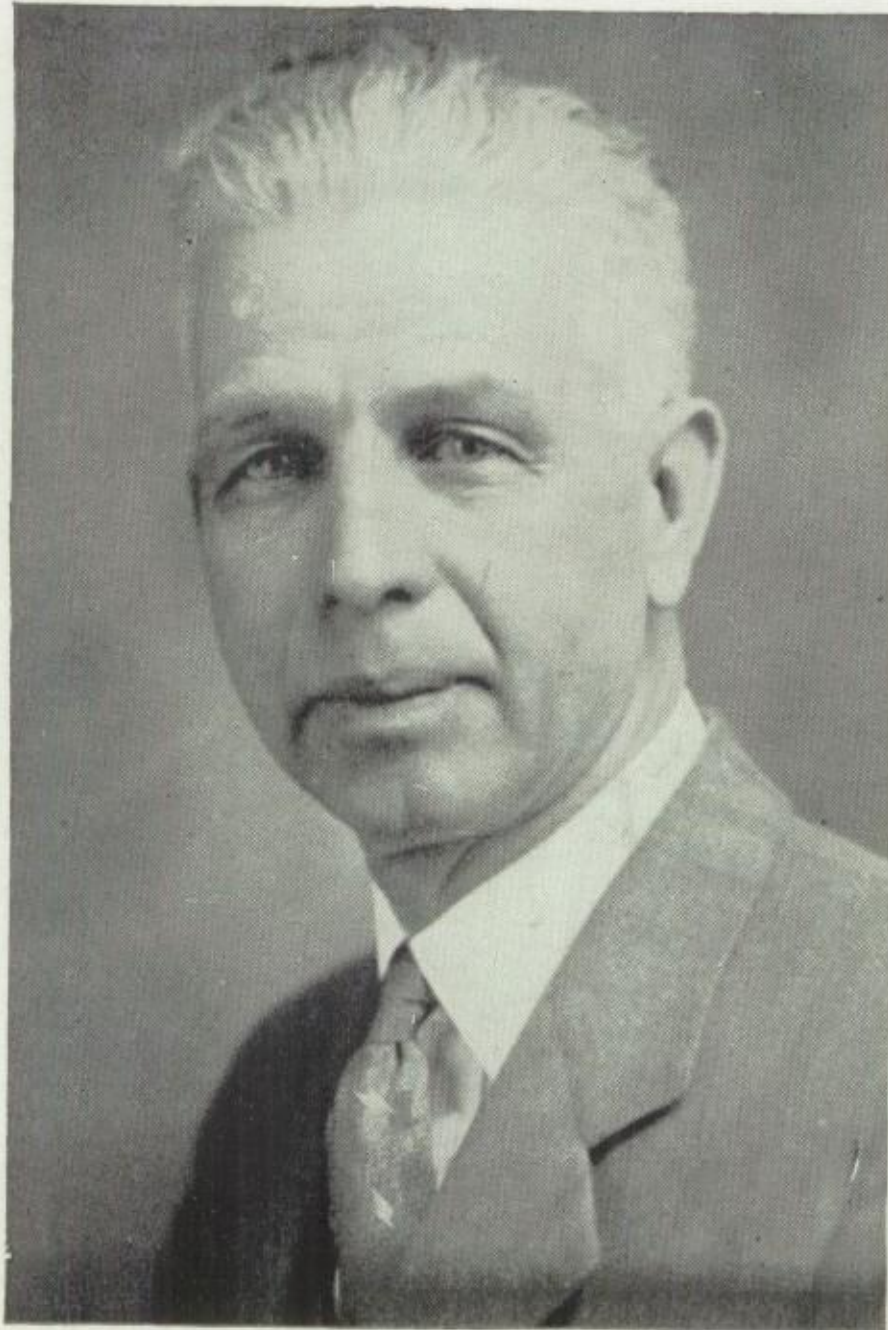

We, the Senior Class of 1939, wish to express to each member of the Board of Education and the Faculty our sincere appreciation for the advantages and opportunities they have given us in gaining our education.

We recognize and value their unselfish services which made these privileges possible, and we will endeavor to show our gratitude by being useful and efficient citizens when we leave this school and take our place in the world.

Again we thank the Board of Education and the Faculty and wish each one well.

THE CLASS OF 1939.

CHIEFTAINS

MR. W. O. MOORE, Superintendent

W. O. Moore became a chieftain of our tribe in 1923. He has faithfully discharged his duty as superintendent and has proved himself to be a true administrator and friend.

Mr. Moore received his A.B. degree from Muskingum College, and his M.A. degree from Wittenberg.

We, the graduating class, wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Moore for his aid and guidance, and his kindly interest in our welfare and progress.

CHIEFTAINS

Mr. L. H. Houpt, by his earnest and persistent efforts as principal of the Upper Sandusky High School, has assisted many boys and girls to become successful men and women.

Mr. Houpt received his B.S. degree from Ohio Northern, and his M.A. from Ohio State University.

We, the graduating class, desire to express our gratitude to Mr. Houpt for his ever-ready help and his untiring efforts which have made our work pleasant and successful.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY OF 1939

It was in nineteen hundred thirty-five that ninety-two eager freshmen mounted the steps of the old Union Building to begin their journey along the adventurous road of learning that so many had traveled before. That first year we were guided by Paul Quail, Madelon O'Brien, and Janet Moser.

The second year we resumed our course under the able leadership of Mervin Stansbery. As sophomores, we had the privilege of attending classes in the new Union School Building. School began in October, and the year passed quickly and happily for us.

In nineteen hundred thirty-seven we were Juniors with half our high-school career behind us. Paul Gilliland served ably as president of the class. We sponsored the Junior-Senior banquet, and presented the play, "Spring Fever." Incidentally, this was the first Junior play to be given in several years. It was directed by Miss Evelyn Neumeister.

With George Angles as president, and Miss Erma Stearns as sponsor, the class of '39 set out to write its final record upon the pages of high-school history. During the year we had a senior benefit show, a senior party, published an annual, and finally attained our ultimate goal - graduation in May.

Now as we approach Commencement, we might compare ourselves to the Roman god, Janus. Like that two-faced god, we turn in retrospect and recall some of the happiest days of our lives, and as we look ahead, we visualize new roads to be traveled and explored.

It is with regret, mingled with fond memories, that we complete our high-school days and bid farewell to teachers and classmates.

HELEN NEWCOMER.

A PROPHECY

LIFE IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT

As our high-school days now draw to a close,
And we write them down with the past,
There are feelings within us we cannot disclose,
Yet we know they forever will last.

For our teachers who guided us over the way,
Like a treasure in memory we hold
Their friendships, their patience, their faithfulness, too,
More precious to us than fine gold.

May our lives in the future be worthy of them
Who dealt with the mind and the soul.
Though we part, may we take with us ideals high,
As through the years our duties unroll.

Though the world may be cold and temptations assail,
We will face it with courage and trust,
For "life is what we make it" you know,
Thus our class motto entreats that we must.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

When, in the fall of 1936, a group of students entered the Upper Sandusky High School to take up their duties as freshmen, they faced the future with determination. Three years later their enthusiasm is still undampened, and the class is an outstanding one.

In the freshman year the class elected Teddy Blaser as president, Robert McClain as vice-president, and Virginia Wilson as secretary-treasurer. An important social event that year was the class party held at the Union School.

The following year Paul Smythe was chosen as president, George Pfeifer as vice-president, and Barbara Fritchie as secretary-treasurer.

Eighty-five members returned in 1938 and immediately plunged into the problem of sponsoring the Junior-Senior banquet. Robert McClain was chosen to lead the class, and Don Reynolds was selected to aid him. Betty Jane Walton served as secretary, while LaVerne Weatherholtz was made head of the exchequer. Miss Jean Golling served as faculty adviser. The class solved its financial problems by selling candy at the football and basketball games, by sponsoring a magician, and by presenting the Junior Class Play, "The Spy."

When the Junior year drew to a successful close, the class turned toward that last and most important year when, as Seniors, they plan to go forward with the same determination and zeal that has marked their progress thus far.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

Oh, for the life of a sophomore! At last that feeling of importance which comes to all students who have just become upper classmen has been attained.

In 1938, after years of diligent study, ninety-four students entered this "hall of learning" to take their places among the upper classmen.

Sophomore history really began with the election of officers. The class made a wise choice when it elected Richard Schoenberger and his cabinet; Edward Strasser, vice-president; Miriam Walton, secretary, and Bill Wood, treasurer. Mr. Gottfried was the faculty sponsor for the group.

While the most important event in its history, so far, was the class party held in December, it is the hope of all that another class party can be enjoyed in the spring.

Among the ambitions of the class, one is most important at the present time, — it is to be able to cope successfully with the difficult tasks which will confront us as members of the Junior class.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

On September sixth, nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, ninety-nine pupils—sixty-six boys and thirty-three girls—entered the Upper Sandusky High School as freshmen. They set for themselves a goal—graduation in nineteen hundred and forty-two.

At the first meeting of the class, Lawson Iles was selected as president, Creighton Moon, vice-president, and Robert Vivian, secretary. Mr. Houpt, principal of the high school, appointed Kathleen Denman as class treasurer.

The most important social event of the year was the class party which was held on March twenty-fourth, at the Union School.

The class wishes to take this opportunity to express its appreciation to Mr. Holland for his interest in the activities of the Freshman Class.

JUNIOR COLLEGE

For several years a Junior College course has been offered to pupils who desire to continue their search for knowledge after graduation from high school. It gives the student an excellent opportunity to take those subjects which he has a desire to study, but was unable to get while in high school. Post-graduate training gives the student a better foundation for a college or business career.

We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Cope, the sponsor of this group, and hope that there will continue to be a Junior College class in the future.

THE COUNCIL FIRE

INDIAN VILLAGE ANNUAL STAFF

Our confidence in the ability of Miss Janet Moser was expressed in her election by the Senior Class as editor-in-chief of the Indian Village Annual.

She has most diligently executed this important task. We believe that our annual is sufficient evidence of what she has accomplished, and we, the class of 1939, are grateful to Janet for her excellent work.

Mervin Stansbery, who was chosen as business manager, has very efficiently performed all duties connected with his office. He has disclosed considerable ability in business management, and to Mervin the Senior Class extends a vote of thanks for his efficient help.

We also appreciate very greatly the faithful assistance of our faculty adviser, Miss Lucy Hetzel, who with the hearty cooperation of the other members of the staff, made it possible for us to publish the 1939 edition of the Indian Village Annual.

With a roll call of ninety-three the largest in its history, the Girl Reserves completed a year of service, study, and enjoyment.

High spots for the year were the annual Gypsy Hike to Camp Pittinger, Hi-Y and Girl Reserves rabbit feed, Kiddies' Christmas party, Christmas bazaar, Father-Daughter banquet, Ring ceremony, and a Public Vesper Service.

The Advisory Council was increased to twenty-two this year with Mrs. Craig Bowman as Chairman, and Mrs. Charles O'Brien as Secretary-Treasurer.

Officers for the year were: President, Audrey Newman, vice-president, Olive Larick, secretary, Mary Jane Kail, treasurer, Kathleen Hehr, and reporter, Charlotte Hehr. Miss Helen Pease acted as faculty adviser with Miss Ann Alban as assistant adviser.

HI-Y

This year, as in the past, the Hi-Y has been a helpful organization for boys of high-school age.

Early in the year, the forty-five members of the club pledged themselves to assist one another in maintaining this standard—to create, establish, and extend throughout the high school and community high standards of Christian living, and to remain together on and for the platform of clean speech, clean scholarship, clean living, and clean athletics.

The Hi-Y officers: Tom Ulrich, president, James Weiker, vice-president, Albert Hogan, treasurer, and Robert Loverich, secretary, with the assistance of their supervisor, Mr. Tschantz, planned an excellent program of activities. The events were: September—induction of new members, November—Hi-Y and Girl Reserves rabbit banquet, December—Christmas party for needy children, January—Coasting party, March—Swimming at Tiffin Y, and April—Outdoor activities. In addition to these special activities, regular meetings were held on the second and fourth Monday of each month.

MERVIN STANSBERY.

ORANGE AND BLACK STAFF

This year the school paper, the Orange and Black News, has again proved a success. In cooperation with their instructor, Mr. Cope, the staff has presented interesting school news to the student body.

The paper was published every three weeks, but during the second semester a daily paper was printed by the staff for several weeks.

Five copies of this year's paper were sent to the contest department of the National Scholastic Press Association. Last year's Orange and Black, in competition with 1500 other school papers, received a first place rating.

At the beginning of the year, donations were received from the student body as a means of financing the paper. The circulation this year exceeded 550 copies.

PRISCILLA WILSON.

SPANISH CLUB

El Circulo Castellano has endeavored to gain a better knowledge of the Spanish literature, music, and customs through social meetings. Members of the club have corresponded with students from South America and other Spanish speaking countries. In this way, a more friendly understanding of the people and their customs has been cultivated. Six weeks were spent in the study of Spanish culture in Mexico.

Seventeen new members were admitted in February from the first-year class.

For its officers the club chose Rebecca Hill, president, Thomas Ulrich, vice-president, Janet Moser, secretary, and Doris Lawrence, treasurer.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT

Now in its third year, the Department of Vocational Agriculture has contributed much toward improved farming practices in the community.

There is an increased interest in judging livestock and crops in county and state contests with teams participating each year. For the past two years the boys have been showing livestock and poultry from their projects at the Ohio State Fair. Several more boys are planning to enter their stock in the State show this year.

In addition to individual project duties, group projects and a program of activities through the Future Farmers of America Organization have been carried out. The outstanding group project this year was the F. F. A. orchard from which more than 1000 bushels of apples were harvested. Other activities have included the State F. F. A. Public Speaking Contest in which Paul Myers participated after winning the district event, and the district parliamentary procedure contest.

The local organization also sent delegates to the Leadership Conference in Columbus, entered various judging contests, placed second in the county F. F. A. pest hunt, and held regular bi-monthly meetings.

As a result of the successful projects carried to completion by the boys and their supervisor, Mr. R. C. Van Buren, there is promise of an increased number of improved farming practices in our community.

PHONETIC WRITERS CLUB

All students of the senior shorthand classes make up the personnel of the Phonetic Writers' Club. This is not a social organization, for its activities are centered in the daily class periods. These activities are designed to give the students a broad knowledge of duties to be performed in the commercial occupations for which they are being trained.

PATROL BOYS

This year, in order to protect our school children, a Boys' Patrol was organized. The morning patrol came on duty at 8:25 and served again at evening dismissal. Gail Smith, captain, Byron Lay and Ray Young, lieutenants, served on the morning and evening patrol. The noon patrol, which came on duty at 12:30, was composed of Richard Beinbrech, captain, Harold Kauble and Paul Crum, lieutenants.

The "no accident" record and the various courteous services rendered speak well for the efficiency of these boys. Near the close of the school year, the Masons, Elks, American Legion, Eagles, Chamber of Commerce, Automobile Club, and the Lions Club purchased white raincoats, hats, and Sam Brown belts for each member.

We highly appreciate the efficient and prompt services of the patrol. These boys have worked faithfully and well. Let us cooperate with them and with their supervisor, Mr. Tschantz, so that they may continue their fine work.

ARLENE FOX.

OFFICE WORKERS

The Office Workers' group is composed of both Junior and Senior typing students. The most important of the many duties of this group is to visit each teacher in the upper six grades twice daily and obtain from them their lists of absentees for the morning and afternoon. These lists are brought to the typing room where a typist makes a complete copy of all absentees for each teacher. These complete lists are then distributed to the teachers. At the end of the day the lists are again collected, rechecked, and a permanent record of the day's absentees is made.

General clerical work for the teachers is also done by individuals of the group.

CAMERA CLUB

Students are becoming more and more picture-minded according to Mr Tschanen, adviser of the newly formed Camera Club. Many students are interested in learning how to take snap-shot pictures successfully. More than thirty boys and girls were enrolled in the club this year.

An organization of this sort is designed to meet the beginning photographer's needs. In another year the Camera Club hopes to increase its membership, and to stimulate an interest in a leisure-time hobby that will prove both entertaining and educational to all who participate in its activities.

Let's boost this new organization, encourage our camera fans, and help the club to succeed in its future projects.

FLORENCE SCHLUP.

SENIOR CHORUS

The Senior Chorus is a vocal organization composed of boys and girls selected from the two Glee Clubs. Fifty-eight members and our pianist, Mary Jane Kail, made up the club this year.

Under the instruction of Mr. Assenheimer, the chorus made much progress. The outstanding event this year was the Cantata, "Harvest," which was presented on November 24, 1938. A selected orchestra assisted in the presentation of the Cantata.

SENIOR BAND

The somber regalia of our Senior Band pictured above has been exchanged for flashing new uniforms. With the coming of spring bright new colors have appeared. We see orange-clad shoulders, dark trousers, and black hats topped with orange pom-poms as the Senior Band marches proudly by.

This organization plays a useful and important part in the lives of many pupils, it is a real asset to our school, appearing at football and basketball games and other school functions. The annual band festival will be held in Upper Sandusky the fifth of May at which time the new uniforms will make a public appearance.

The Senior Band is directed by Mr. Assenheimer. Its officers are. James Weiker, president; Robert Loverich, vice-president; Mary Jane Kail, secretary; Francis Hetzel, treasurer; Charlotte Hehr and George Angles, drum majors; Creighton Moon, librarian and flag bearer.

The band members take this opportunity to express their appreciation to the school board and to all those who made it possible to have new uniforms.

SENIOR ORCHESTRA

Along with the other musical organizations of our high school, the Senior Orchestra continues to be an invaluable asset. Chapel exercises, school programs, and various entertainments are made more interesting by the music of the high-school orchestra. On March 4, the orchestra took part in the Orchestra Festival at Bucyrus.

As it is customary for the organization to be ruled by officers, the members elected the following for this year. Paul Smythe, president, Robert McClain, vice-president, Anna Louise Koehler, secretary, and Albert Hogan, treasurer. The orchestra was encouraged and well directed by Mr. Assenheimer. Three regular rehearsals were held each week.

Violins: B. Barth, A. Bowman, B. Bowman, C. Billhardt, P. L. Coons, M. Coleman, K. Denman, A. Fox, H. Graham, J. A. Gottfried, A. Hogan, M. J. Howard, B. Neate, R. Spellerberg, P. Smythe, R. Withrow.

The Junior Band, under the direction of Mr. Assenheimer, is organized for the purpose of training students for Senior Band. It is composed of twenty-five members this year. These members have begun to perfect their knowledge of music and will be placed in Senior Band as soon as they prove their ability.

Let us boost the Junior Band and hope that these students will be successful in their musical careers.

JUNIOR ORCHESTRA

The Junior Orchestra offers the student who is interested in music a fine opportunity for the preliminary training necessary for admission into Senior Orchestra.

This year the orchestra, under the capable direction of Mr. Assenheimer, met regularly every Wednesday for practice. By diligent work all of the members are gaining proficiency, and soon will become valuable members of the Senior Orchestra.

Violins: E. L. Irwin, M. Lay, R. Moon, J. Seim, D. Ulrich.

Seventy voices compose the Girls' Glee Club with Mr. Assenheimer as director, and Jane Kerr as accompanist.

The girls have made remarkable progress considering the fact that they meet only on Monday of each week.

The club has appeared at various programs at the school throughout this year.

SENIOR BOYS' GLEE CLUB

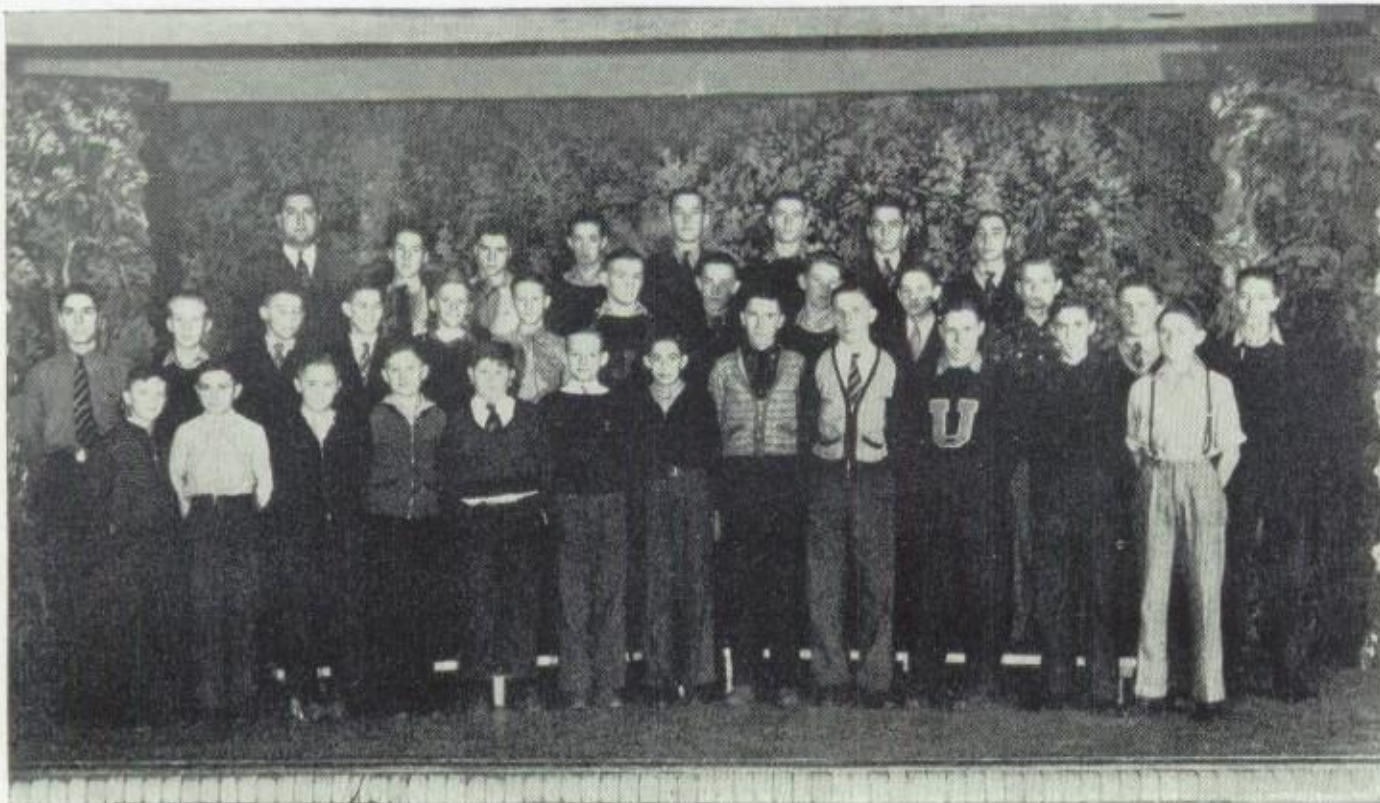

Under the able leadership of Mr. Assenheimer, thirty-five students organized the Boys' Glee Club. Jane Kerr was chosen as pianist. The club met once a week and participated in numerous programs both in and out of school.

Through the united cooperation and effort of each member, the group became one of the outstanding musical organizations of our school. We appreciate the work of the club and wish them continued success.

JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS' CHORUS

The Junior Chorus, under the very able direction of Miss Artz, consists of fifty-five girls and twenty-nine boys. These groups meet twice a week. They study the fundamentals of music and have done some work rehearsing two and three part singing.

They proved their talent very nicely in the operetta "Hansel and Gretel" written by Humperdinck, which they presented this spring.

Here's success to you, members of the Junior Chorus!

OLIVE LARICK.

JUNIOR HIGH BOYS' CHORUS

HANSEL AND GRETEL

The Junior High School Chorus presented the operetta, "Hansel and Gretel," Friday, April 21, in the Union School Auditorium. The play was directed by Miss Katherine Artz and Miss Evelyn Neumeister.

THE STORY

Hansel and Gretel are left at home with work to be done while Mother and Father are away trying to earn a living. When the Mother returns she finds the children dancing, and very much angered she sends them into the woods to gather berries.

The children lose their way in the forest and fall asleep when the sand-men surround them. The angels keep guard over them during the night.

In the morning when the children are awakened by the dew-men, they discover a lovely cookie house. While partaking of the goodies, the children are frightened by a horrible witch who casts a spell upon them. She pushes Hansel into a cage and prepares to bake Gretel in the oven. However, the children outwit the witch and instead push her into the oven.

The Father and Mother come into the woods and find the children, so all are happily reunited.

ATHLETIC BOARD

At the close of the season, we are proud to say that the Athletic Board has been successful in its work. Through the untiring efforts of the members of this group, and with the wholehearted cooperation of the student body and the faculty, the athletic morale of our school has been strengthened.

The board is composed of Mr. Cope, director; Mr. Houpt, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Osborn, clerk of board of education; Mr. Gottfried, faculty manager; Miss Miner, girls' coach; and Mr. Hutton, boys' coach.

Much appreciation should be rendered this group for the careful planning and execution of the athletic and physical education programs for our school this year. These activities have taken unlimited time and effort, and we wish to take this opportunity to express to the board our thanks for their part in making our school year a more profitable and enjoyable one.

1938 ATHLETIC SEASON 1939

While the 1938 football season was not entirely successful as far as the lost and won column was concerned, the games stimulated a feeling of pride and sportsmanship in the school's athletics. The players put forth their best efforts to win but were not always successful. Five of the nine teams played were among the outstanding eleven in the state.

Nineteen players received their letters this year. Of this number only Tom Ulrich and the co-captains, Edward Karg and Mervin Stansbery will be lost through graduation.

During the basketball season the boys developed into a fast, scrappy team. Under Captain Tom Ulrich they pulled through many a tight spot to come out on top. In the district tournament the Huttonmen lost their first game and were eliminated from further play.

Coach Hutton believes that next year's teams should be able to exhibit an unbeaten and untied record both in football and in basketball, and he intends to concentrate on that goal.

The teams wish to express their appreciation to the athletic board, to the faculty, and to the student body for their fine support and cooperation during the football and basketball season. Let us do our best to make next year's record in athletics one of which we can all be justly proud.

BASKETBALL

The boy handling the ball in the picture below is Captain Tom Ulrich, Upper's center and leading scorer. Waiting to receive the ball is Guard Mervin Stansbery. Mervin is a senior this year. Attempting to block the play is Paul Gilliland, the other senior on Upper's squad. The remainder of the boys have one or more years to play on the varsity. The players who appear in the background are: E. Scheck, F. Hetzel, J. Iles, C. Shambaugh, F. Roby, R. Schoenberger, and C. Bowman.

ONEIDA MAIDENS

COACH MINER

The Oneida Maidens were unable to "click" this year, although much effort was put forth by both the coach and the team. In practice many clever plays and passes were worked out, but the opposing teams proved too strong for our local girls.

Much credit is due the coach and the team for their never-ending spirit and clean sportsmanship in the face of oft-repeated defeat.

A loss will be felt next year when the following seniors will not return: Martha Hare, Margaret Russell, Kathleen Hehr, Audrey Newman, Evelyn Larick, and Gloria Warren.

BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

This year fifteen senior high boys and thirty-two junior high boys were enrolled in the physical education class under the direction of Mr. Hutton.

The major sports were touch football, basketball, and baseball. The minor sports were volleyball and the fundamental movements in track.

The class also studied health problems. A number of the boys mastered tumbling acts which were displayed between halves of the basketball games.

In the spring gym festival members of the class gave demonstrations in tumbling, marching and calisthenics.

EILEEN YOUNG.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Girls' Physical Education class consisted of twenty-six junior-high girls and twelve senior-high girls.

During September, October, and November the girls participated in out-of-door games. The major winter sports were: volley ball, basketball, tumbling, and dancing. Baseball was enjoyed in the spring.

In connection with the games, a health class was held once a week during the year. In this class Miss Miner taught the girls how to develop strong, healthy bodies, and emphasized the importance of cultivating good manners by having them make attractive scrap books.

The class participated in a public demonstration program at the school in April.

SENIOR PLAY

LENA RIVERS

Presented by the Senior Class on Friday, May 12

The story deals with the plight of young Lena Rivers and her beloved Granny Nichols who are compelled to leave their New England home and seek refuge with Granny's son, John, who has changed the family name of Nichols to Livingstone because of the social aspirations of his dominating wife, Matilda. Arriving in Kentucky where the Livingstones have a large plantation, Lena and her grandmother are subject to the sort of treatment that is usually allotted to poor relations. Mrs. Livingstone and her daughter, Caroline, tremble with fear at the thought of their wealthy friends' reactions to the awkward country girl and Granny Nichols. There is one of Caroline's friends who sees Lena's potential worth—it is Durward Belmont, whom Mrs. Livingstone plans to marry to her daughter, Caroline. Durward becomes enamoured of Lena and starts to pay her attentions, much to the astonishment of the wealthy Livingstones, who do everything they can to place Lena in a false position. In the last act, when it looks as though Lena were going to lose Durward, Fate steps in and proves our heroine's sterling worth, and the denouement at the end of the play is startling indeed.

This play is packed with tears and laughter. The part of Granny Nichols is loaded with laughs, as is John Junior and the two blackface parts, Aunt Milly and Old Caesar, who are a whole show in themselves.

The following was the cast of characters:

Lena Rivers, Kathleen Hehr, Granny Nichols, Florence Schlup, John Livingstone, Paul Gilliland, Mrs. Livingstone, Betty Neate, Caroline Livingstone, Gloria Warren, Anna Livingstone, Madelon O'Brien, John Junior, Edward Bremyer, Frank Graham, Lewis Zimmerman, Mrs. Graham, Dorothy Robey, Durward Bellmont, Albert Hogan, Malcolm Everett, Wayne Horn, Aunt Milly, Edna Hall, Old Caesar, Arthur Binau.

Business Manager: James Weiker.

Publicity: Wilbur Stephan, Robert Loverich, Mervin Stansbery, Wilbur Binau, Jessie Withrow, Helen Newcomer, Pauline Amert.

Stage and Properties: Jack Jones, Charles McClain, George Angles.

Prompter: Olive Larick.

Director: Miss Evelyn Neumeister.

Ushers: Viola Wagner, Doris Lawrence, Evelyn Larick, Irene Stansbery, Arlene Fox, Zella Emptage, Mary Louise Bower, Margaret Berg, Evelyn Swinehart, Anna Louise Koehler.

JUNIOR PLAY

The Junior class play, "The Spy," was presented in the Union School auditorium, Friday evening, April 14, under the direction of Irvin D. Tschantz.

The cast of characters were: Mr. Wharton, the father, Frederick Binau; Sarah Wharton, his eldest daughter, Helen Bils; Frances Wharton, the younger daughter, Virginia Wilson; Jeanette Peyton, Wharton's sister-in-law, Mary Alice Lucas; Caesar, a colored servant, Richard Beinbrech; Mr. Harper, a stranger, Dale Hudson; Henry Wharton, the son, Robert McClain; Harvey Birch, a peddler, Arthur Wheeler; John Lawton, captain of the Virginia horse, Tom Bowman; Peyton Dunwoodie, Continental soldier, Verco Weatherholtz; George Singleton, Continental soldier, Richard Cornely; Lieutenant Mason, of the Continental army, Don Reynolds; Dr. Sitgreaves, soldier, Continental army, Francis Hetzel; Colonel Wellmere, a British officer, Morris Gillespie; Katy Haynes, housekeeper for Harvey Birch, Ann Miller; Isobel Singleton, George's sister, Mary Louise Blair; Betty Flanagan, keeper of a nearby inn, Marjorie Wolfrum; Tom Mason, Carl Schwabel; W. Dunwoodie, Paul Smythe; Minister, Teddy Blaser.

"The Spy" is an adaptation of J. Fenimore Cooper's story of the man who bore the reproach of his neighbors for the sake of his country. The action of the play takes place in upper New York state during the American Revolutionary war. The scene is laid in Mr. Wharton's home where the two daughters hold opposite views as to England and the Colonies; the father tries to appear neutral while the brother, Henry, is a captain in the English army.

The mysterious Mr. Harper attracts attention from the first, and you alternately admire and despise Harvey Birch, the peddler. There is plenty of suspense when Peyton Dunwoodie, a major in the American army who is Frances Wharton's sweetheart, and Henry Wharton are under the same roof and it becomes Peyton's duty to place him under arrest. His escape, recapture, and second escape are full of thrills. The interrupted marriage of Sarah Wharton and Colonel Wellmere, the attack by the ruffians, and the tragic results make the play interesting and exciting.

And at the end, 30 years later, when Frances' son and Tom Mason discover Harvey Birch's secret, you breathe a sigh of relief that he has been cleared of all suspicion.

WE ARE SEVEN

We wish to honor those Seniors who excel in scholarship. They have, for the past four years, maintained an enviable record and their places in our "hall of fame" are well deserved.

REBECCA HILL.....Valedictorian

Rebecca aims for nothing short of perfection, is loyal to friend and teacher, and is dependability itself.

JANET MOSER.....Salutatorian

Although she seems shy, Janet has a friendly disposition; she is trustworthy, and has won the confidence and love of her classmates.

MARY JANE KAIL.....Class Orator

Quiet and unassuming, yet capable and dependable, these characteristics make Mary Jane an outstanding student and a loyal friend.

PAULINE AMERT

Friendly, fun-loving; never negligent when duty calls; her keen mind and well-trained fingers will be a real asset if she pursues a business career.

MILDRED COLEMAN

Mildred has many interests; she is a talented musician; her pleasant smile and hearty cooperative spirit have won for her many friends.

FERN MORRIS

She is a jolly good sport; vivacious; brimming over with energy, and interested in many school activities.

BETTY NEATE

Congenial; businesslike; dependable; always ready to serve; these qualities characterize Betty, our Annual Treasurer.

THE INDIAN VILLAGE ANNUAL STAFF greatly appreciates the courtesy and patronage of the businessmen who have done so much to make this book possible. We urge everyone to read the advertisements placed in this section of the book and to patronize these generous merchants and businessmen.

Originality is a quality of the imagination. It is the ability to take the usual elements of picture and story and present them to your student body in a new, different and interesting fashion. Our School Service organization has long been noted for its true originality in Year Book planning.
